5 Basic Sentence Patterns—Review I

Directions: Punctuate the following sentences correctly. Identify the sentence patterns used.

1. The students took their texts and notebooks to class; apparently they expected a review before the test.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{IC, IC} \]

2. When we asked for a second motel room, the manager said that there were no vacancies.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{SC, IC} \]

3. He spoke to the construction builders; there was a flaw in the weatherstripping.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{IC, IC} \]

4. Since I am working this weekend, I will be off next Saturday and Sunday.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{SC, IC} \]

5. The safety conference was closed when enrollment reached twenty.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{IC, SC} \]

6. Although he was not a member of the association, he attended many of its meetings.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{SC, IC} \]

7. The data processing lab is up to date and the students get excellent training here.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{IC, IC} \]

8. The meeting was interrupted; it was resumed after lunch.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{IC, IC} \]

9. It is important that you realize the impact of company policy; for the decision you make is final.
   sentence pattern: \[ \text{IC, IC} \]

10. The carpenters are working in the main lobby; however, they must be finished today.
    sentence pattern: \[ \text{IC, IC} \]