Proofreading Passage # 5
Subject-Verb Agreement

Directions:

1) Read the essay. Some of the sentences may contain errors in subject-verb agreement. Other sentences are correct as they appear.
2) Make corrections as needed.

Around here nothing gets done because everybody believes that someone else is going to do the work. This is a problem because usually no one actually does the work. When nobody does the work, everyone blames someone else. No one wants to take responsibility. Anyone who can’t recognize this paradox probably doesn’t have much experience in the real work world.
